Postpartum Hemorrhage

Stage 1: Bleed

Retained placenta—consider uterine tamponade
- Inspect for uncontrolled bleeding at all levels
- Suture—if C/S
- Laceration—hemostats
- Use of retained Products of Conception
- Physician or Midwife
- Record blood loss volume & time
- Weigh perineal pads & items to estimate blood loss
- Empty bladder—consider indwelling catheter
-空-
- Gosses as ordered
- Good response to first dose—give additional agent
- Administer uterotonic medication ordered by provider
- Continue vigorous fundal massage
- Type and cross blood if needed
- Type and Cross Blood for Massive Transfusion Protocol and Prepare a
- Notify blood bank of Massive
- Nursing Supervisor
- Anesthesia to bedside
- Notify Second OB
- Activated Resuscitation Team
- Ensure Labs are drawn and Super Stat
- All items from Stage 1 AN:

Stage 2: Bleed

Medication dose
- Antiparous 800mg 5L X 1
dose
- 600mg-1000mg Pr X 1
- Intravenous (IV) or Sudo, 6 doses/4hr
- C/S—no access
- Counteract/normal (NOT IV)
- 6-10mg/mo or
- Atropine (IV)
- Phenylephrine (Ephedrine)
- Captopril
- Trimetrazine
- Metaraminol

Medication doses
- Tonoins IV X 1 dose
- Soothing
- Del of placenta at least
- IV—increased rate after
- Premixed Jutomy 500cc

Oxytocin: